

Leah's Voice

Use the words in the box to complete the sentence

sibling	feelings	peers	caring	include
friend	acceptance	sister	respect	differences

Treat others with respect.

Be kind to your peers.

A sibling can be a brother or a sister.

Acceptance is liking someone just as they are.

Logan was Leah's sister in the story.

Include others when you play.

When you treat someone with kindness, you are being a good friend.

Sharing your feelings with others can help you understand them better.

Being concerned about someone else is called caring.

Because all of us are not the same, we have differences.