

Leah's Voice

Responding to the Story

Discussion Questions

- What does it mean to “be a voice” for someone or something?
- Would it hurt your feelings if you were not included when your classmates were playing together?
- How would you feel if your parents told you a brother or sister had autism or any other disorder?
- Would that be hard to share with your friends, or explain to your friends?
- If you saw someone being mistreated would you tell someone?
- If that person being mistreated was your brother or sister would you respond differently?
- What does the phrase “to be accepting of others” mean to you?
- Could you express your feelings by drawing or painting?
- Is it important to understand that we all have differences?